

52. The treasurer shall, at the expiration of the term of his office, deliver up the office to his successor, and all papers and books relative thereto, except the books containing taxes uncollected by him, and for which his bond is responsible; and that he be allowed twelve months after the expiration of his term of office, to make settlements and complete the collection of all State and county taxes that may be in his hands uncollected, and to pay over to the Treasurer of the State of Maryland, the amount of State tax due by him, and to the order of the County Commissioners of Prince George county, the county tax that may then be due by him; nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to deprive the said county treasurer from the benefit of section forty-six, of article twenty-nine, of the Code of Public General Laws, under head of relief to sheriffs and collectors. ^{Expiration of term.}

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That all acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act, be and the same are hereby repealed. ^{Repealed.}

SEC. 3: And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. ^{In force.}

Approved April 11th, 1874.