

And the Senate proceeded, as the Constitution provides, to reconsider the said bill returned by the Governor to the Senate with his objections, which bill is in the following words, to wit:

An Act to repeal section 1 of Article LXXIII. of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled 'Penitentiary,' regulating the appointment of Directors of the Maryland Penitentiary, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 1 of Article LXXIII. of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Penitentiary," be and the same is hereby repealed, and the following is enacted as section 1 of said Article:

1. The Governor of this State, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, shall bi-annually appoint Directors of the Maryland Penitentiary, to be selected from suitable persons who are residents of the city of Baltimore; he shall appoint at the present Session of the General Assembly six Directors, two of whom shall be appointed for two years, two shall be appointed for four years, and two shall be appointed for six years, who shall hold office until their successors are appointed and qualified. They may be removed as provided for in this Article. The Governor shall designate the respective terms of said appointees; as the terms designated above shall expire, the Governor shall fill them for six years each.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

On motion by Mr. Earle,

The bill was reconsidered.

The question then being,

"Shall this bill pass notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

It was determined in the negative by yeas and nays as follows:
