

trespassing with dog or gun on private property in Kent county, endorsed March 19th, 1874, passed by yeas and nays, and respectfully ask your Honorable Body to reconsider its action thereon.

By order,

MILTON Y. KIDD,
Chief Clerk.

Mr. Stevens, from a Committee of Conference, submitted the following REPORT.

The Committee of Conference on the disagreeing votes of the two houses, on House bill No. 56, entitled an Act to repeal chapter 287 of the laws passed at the January Session, 1870, and to repeal sections 810, 811 and 816 of Article IV. of the Code of Public Local Laws, entitled "Baltimore city," sub-title "Police," and re-enact the same with amendments, respectfully report, that they have agreed to the following amendments to the bill as it passed the Senate, viz:

Insert words "Mayor and" after "Inspection of the," in line 17, seventh page of the bill.

Insert after word "Baltimore," in line 18, seventh page of bill the following, viz:

"And either of them, and it shall be the duty of the Comptroller of the city of Baltimore to examine all bills and accounts presented by said Board of Police Commissioners, and the vouchers therefor."

F. P. STEVENS,

JOHN R. BLAKE,

On the part of the Senate.

J. McCOLGAN,

On the part of the House of Delegates.

Which was read, and the amendments adopted.

The said bill was then passed, as amended, by yeas and nays as follows:
