NEGATIVE.

Messrs. President,

Phelps—2.

Said bill was then sent to the House of Delegates.

Mr. Earle, from the Committee on Finance, reported favorably on the bill entitled "An Act to release the estates and property, real, personal and mixed, devised and bequeathed to the Johns Hopkins University, from the tax on the clear value thereof, commonly known as the tax on collateral inheritances, distributive shares and legacies."

Which was read the first time.

Also,

A bill entitled "An Act to refund to Morgan H. Clark, of Washington county, the sum of fifty dollars, paid by him into the Treasury, on or about the 24th day of January, 1872."

Which was read the first time.

Also,

A bill entitled "An Act to release the estate and property, real, personal and mixed, devised and bequeathed to the Johns Hopkins Hospital, from the tax on the clear value thereof, commonly known and designated as the tax on collateral inheritances, distributive shares and legacies."
