The Senate bill entitled an Act to repeal section 82 of Article XXIX. of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Courts," providing for rendering judgment for the damages awarded by the jury upon the ratification of inquisitions for condemning lands

With the following amendment :

AMENDMENT PROPOSED.

"An Act entitled an Act to repeal an Act entitled an Act to add an additional section to Article XXIX. of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Courts," providing for rendering judgments for the damages awarded by the jury upon the ratification of inquisitions for condemning lands, and to re-enact the same with amendments, and to add additional sections to the said Article of the Code.

Section 1. That section eighty-two of Article twenty-nine of the Code of Public General Laws, entitled "Courts," as enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, of eighteen hundred and seventy, chapter three hundred and seventy-one, be and the same is hereby repealed, and re-enacted and amended, so as to read as follows :

82. In all cases of proceedings to condemn property for any purpose whatever, under any law or charter, and whether such proceedings be by inquisition of a jury, or otherwise, upon the return and ratification of the inquisition by the proper Court or upon other final award of damages, upon appeal or otherwise, and in all cases in which inquisitions have been heretofore returned and ratified, or damages otherwise finally awarded, the owners named in the inquisition or other
