

proceeding, shall be entitled to judgment against the persons or corporations, private or municipal, for whose use the condemnation may be, or may have been so made. for the amount of the damages awarded; and in cases hereafter to arise, unless within ninety days after condemnation ratified, or other final award of damages; and in cases where condemnations have heretofore been had, and no rights have attached under the existing laws, unless within ninety days from the passage or approval of this Act by the Governor, the said condemnations shall be abandoned by written notification to said owners, or by other appropriate proceeding; execution may immediately thereafter issue, as in other cases of judgments rendered in Courts of Law, unless the said condemnation shall have been made by a municipal corporation, in which case, execution shall not issue in less than twelve months from the date of the said judgment.

Section 2. And be it enacted, That the following additional sections be added to the said Article twenty-nine, viz :

83. The judgment mentioned in the preceding section shall be rendered, as of course, by the Court to which said inquisition or award may have been or shall be returned originally, or upon appeal, and in cases where said condemnation or award is made by Commissioners or other persons, under any law or ordinance, and no appeal has been or shall be taken to a Court of Law, then the said judgment shall be rendered by the Court having jurisdiction of appeals in such cases, upon the filing of a certificate under the hands and seals of said Commissioners or other officers, which certificate shall state the property condemned, the amount awarded to the party desiring such certificate, the name of the person in whose favor such damages are awarded, and the person or corporation to whose use the condemnation is made; and in case of refusal or neglect of such Commissioners or other officers to give such certificates, where damages have been or may hereafter be awarded, the said Court shall, upon application, issue a subpoena duces tecum to such person or persons as may have custody of the proceedings of such Commissioners or other officers, commanding him or them to bring into Court all the said proceedings, and thereupon render judgment, in the same manner as if the said certificate had been furnished and filed, and after judgment shall have been rendered, the said official proceedings shall be remanded to their proper custodian.

84. In case of the abandonment of the condemnation by the party making the same after an assessment of damages has been made, the owner or owners of the property embraced in the inquisition, shall be entitled to recover against the party who instituted the condemnation proceedings, interest on the amount of damages awarded, subject to proper deduc-
