

may hereafter be incurred by the Commissioners of Baltimore county in executing the provisions of the aforesaid Acts of the General Assembly, and supplements thereto, shall be paid to the said County Commissioners by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, immediately upon the ascertainment of the amount by the said Commissioners, and demand made upon the said Mayor and City Council."

Which was rejected.

The question recurring upon the amendment of Mr. Tuck, It was adopted.

Mr. Davis submitted the following amendment :

Add the following section, to be known as "Section 9."

"Whereas, Large sums of money have been expended by the County Commissioners of Baltimore county, without the territory described in this Act, and proposed to be annexed to the city of Baltimore, in the manner hereinbefore provided, since the first day of January, 1865, to wit: in opening and constructing roads and in building bridges and culverts, by the Street Commissioners of said county, by virtue of several Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, in laying out streets and avenues, and marking and bounding the same; and by the School Commissioners of said county, in purchasing lots, and in building and repairing school houses; therefore

"Section 9. And be it enacted, That if the territory described herein, and proposed to be annexed, should be annexed to Baltimore city, then the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, shall pay to the County Commissioners of Baltimore county such amount of money as the said Mayor and City Council and said County Commissioners may agree upon as fair and equitable for the amounts that have been expended since the first day of January, 1865, for opening and constructing roads, and building bridges and culverts, and for laying out streets and avenues, and marking and bounding the same, and for the purchase of lots, and building and repairing school houses thereon; and if the said Mayor and City Council, and said County Commissioners, should not be able to agree as to said amount to be paid, then the said Mayor and City Council shall appoint one person, and said County Commissioners one person, whose duty it shall be to proceed, as soon as practicable, to adjust and determine the amounts to be paid to said County Commissioners for the aforesaid expenditures, and if the persons so appointed, should not be able to agree upon the amount to be paid, then it shall be the duty of the said persons to select a third person, who, together with the two persons so appointed as aforesaid, shall immediately proceed to adjust and determine the amount to
