The President presented the following communications :

ANNAPOLIS, April 1st, 1874.

To the Honorable,

The Senate of Maryland :

In compliance with an order of the Senate, I respectfully submit the following statement :

One article of the alleged indebtedness of St. John's College, is on account of Professors' salaries, charged as in part unpaid for some time past. As I understand it, the claim arises in this way. At a meeting of the Board of Visitors and Governors of St. John's College, held July 6th, 1871, the salaries of the Faculty were reduced by a resolution of the Board. That of the Principal was reduced five hundred dollars, and those of the subordinate Professors were also reduced by a less amount. The difference between the salaries paid since this resolution was passed reducing them, and the
