CHAP. 102.

CHAPTER 101.

An Additional Supplement to the act, entitled, An act to incorporate a Company for the purpose of cutting and making a Canal between the River Delaware and the Chesapeake Bay.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the president and directors of the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company have, by their memorial set forth, that some time in the month of August eighteen hundred and twenty-four, they purchased of a certain Thomas Bittle about thirty-six acres of land, lying on Broad creek and Back creek, in Cecil county, and received from him a deed therefor, but that doubts are entertained whether said company were not restrained by the thirteenth section of the original act to which this is an additional supplement, to the quantity of one acre, and have prayed for the passage of a law to remove the same; Therefore,

Title to land made valid.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the title of said Chesapeake and Delaware Canal Company to the said land so purchased from the said Thomas Bittle, and by him conveyed to them, shall be to all intents and purposes as good and available either at law or in equity, as if the company had not been restrained by the said thirteenth section; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed in any manner to affect the right of any person or persons whatsoever.

Proviso

For what purpose to be used.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said land shall not be used for any purpose whatever, except for stables; offices and buildings, essential to the objects for which the said canal company was incorporated; Provided always, that nothing in this section shall be so construed as to prevent said canal company from selling any part of said land which they may deem unnecessary for the objects for which said canal company was incorporated.

CHAPTER 102.
