

1830. be and the same is hereby exempt from appraisement and CHAP. 18. sale, in all cases where there shall be a widow, or child, or children, or grandchild or grandchildren, and that the said wearing apparel shall belong to, and be the property of the child or children of the deceased, and if there be no child or children, then the same shall belong to and be the property of the grandchild or grandchildren of the deceased, and if there be neither child nor grandchild, then the same shall belong to and be the property of the widow of the deceased.
- Watches, &c. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the wearing apparel of not to be in- deceased persons, exempt from appraisement and sale un-cluded der this act, shall not be deemed or taken to include watches or jewelry of any description.
- Distribution to Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in all cases in which be made the wearing apparel of a deceased person is exempted from appraisement and sale by virtue of the provisions of this act, it shall be the duty of the executor or administrator of such deceased person, to make such distribution of such wearing apparel, as he may consider equitable and proper, when there are more persons than one entitled thereto, and the same to deliver to the person or persons entitled to the same, according to the provisions of the first section of this act.
- Repeal Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the act, entitled, An act to exempt the wearing apparel of deceased persons from appraisement and exposure to sale by executors and administrators, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and forty-five, be and the same is hereby repealed.

 CHAPTER 18.

Passed Jan. 26 An Act for the relief of Mary B. Godwin, of the State of Indiana.

Final account Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of to be allowed Maryland, That the orphans court of Queen-Anne's county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, as soon after the passage of this act as may be, to allow Sligh-ter Sparks, of said county, to exhibit and pass in said court a final account as guardian of Mary B. Godwin, as if she was of the full age of eighteen years.