CHAP. 144.

Guardian may lease out lots.

Proviso

To account for rents, &c.

that a law may pass authorising him to lease out the property of said orphans, for the residue of the terms for which the said property was originally leased, and the prayer of the petitioner appearing reasonable. Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Jonas M. Pherson, guardian to Frederick K. Allcock, Margaret D. Allcock, John D. Allcock, and Amelia F. Allcock, orphan children of William Allcock, late of the city of Baltimore, deceased, be and he is hereby authorised and empowered, to lease out for the unexpired term for which the original lease was granted, all the right, title, claim and interest, of the said orphan children, of, in and to certain lots in the city of Baltimore, to them belonging, and particularly mentioned and described in the office of the register of wills of Baltimore county, and to execute leases for the same; Provided, that no lease made by him shall be for a less sum than is now chargeable thereon, nor shall be deemed valid until such lease shall have been submitted to the orphans court of Baltimore county, and be approved by the said court.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said guardian shall duly return the rents, issues and profits, that may by him be received from such property, to the orphans court of Baltimore county, and account for the same as other portions of the estate of his said wards.

CHAPTER 144.

Passed Feb 16 An Act relating to the Police of the City of Baltimore.

Firing crackers, &c.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the mayor and city council of Baltimore, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, to make and pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary and proper, to suppress the evil and pernicious practice of firing and discharging crackers within the limits of said city, either by prohibiting the sale of crackers, or otherwise.
