

Sec. 8. And be it enacted, That all accounts settled by the overseer of the poor with the trustees, shall be on oath, (or affirmation,) that they are just and true, which oath, (or affirmation,) shall be administered by any one of the trustees; and the said overseer shall, at the expiration of each and every year, return to the said trustees, on oath, (or affirmation,) a fair and regular account in writing, of all the stock, farming utensils, and other things now remaining in his hands, or which may come to his hands aforesaid, together with a statement of the crop and other articles made on the estate of the said alms or work-house, and an account of all the expenses and charges attending the maintenance, and support of the poor in said alms or work-house, and of all monies received by him for the sales of the produce of their labour and otherwise; which said statements and accounts the trustees are hereby directed to lay before the levy court at their said annual meeting.

1830.
CHAP. 151.

Accounts of overseer to be on oath.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That all the meetings of the said trustees for the poor, necessary to be held for carrying into effect the provisions of this act, or of the original act to which this act is supplementary, and shall be held at the alms or work-house in the said county, except such meetings as may be necessary for the settlement and passing their accounts with the levy court.

Meetings.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the said court shall be allowed twenty-five cents for each certificate of appointment which he shall make out and deliver to the sheriff, and the sheriff shall be allowed fifty cents for the delivery of each of the said certificates to the persons appointed; all which charges and allowances are to be levied, collected and paid over, as other county charges are.

Allowance for certificates of appointment.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the trustees shall, each and every of them, be entitled to receive as a compensation a per diem allowance of two dollars for each and every day they shall necessarily attend at the alms or work-house, or other place of meeting, in discharging the duties imposed by this act, which is to be levied, collected and paid, as other county charges are.

Allowance to trustees-

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That from and after the organization of this institution, under the provisions of this act, it shall not be lawful for any trustee to furnish, on his own account, supplies of any description, for the use of the alms or work-house; and if any trustee shall, in violation of this act, furnish supplies to said institution, he shall, upon sufficient evidence of the fact being offered to the levy court of the county aforesaid, forfeit, for the use and benefit of the institution, whatever supplies he may have so furnished.

Supplies, not to be furnished by trustees.
