

1830. any of the by-laws or ordinances for the regulation of the CHAP. 154. said town.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners Opening of shall also have power and authority to open a street forty street feet wide to run from Liberty-street to Commerce-street, and to give a name thereto, and to return a plat of said street, under their hands and seals, to the clerk of Queen Anne's county, who shall record the same among the records of said county, and the said street shall forever thereafter be and remain a public street, and be under the control and direction of the commissioners of said town as public streets are.

Damages Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners, or a majority of them, shall have power to assess damages to any of the landholders through whose property said street may pass, taking into consideration the advantages and disadvantages resulting to said property from opening said street, and paying therefor, in such manner as the said commissioners may direct in an ordinance which they are hereby authorised to pass for that purpose.

Hogs Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That no hog-stye shall be erected, nor shall hogs be kept in any other manner whatever, within one half-mile of the bounds of said town, unless the owner of such hog-stye or hogs shall actually reside on the premises where the said hog-stye is erected, or where said hogs are kept, under the penalty of two dollars, to be recovered of the owner thereof for every day he, she or they, shall continue said hog-stye, or keep said hogs, after five days notice is given to remove them by the commissioners or their agents.

Penalties, how Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That all the penalties im-to be recover- posed by this act shall be recovered as directed by the ed eighth section of the act of assembly to enlarge the bounds of Centreville, and for other purposes, passed at December session in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-three.

General issue Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if any suit or action be commenced against any person or persons for any thing done in pursuance of this act, such person or persons may plead the general issue, and give this act in evidence, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.