CHAPTER 168.

An Act for the widening of certain Streets near the Washington Monument, in the City of Baltimore, and for other purposes therein mentioned. Passed Feb 23

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly that it would greatly conduce to the public advantage, and the beauty of the Washington Monument, to widen Charles-street, or Washington Place, and Monument-street, in the vicinity of the said Monument, in the city of Baltimore; and a majority of the owners of the property which will be affected by the proposed alteration, who are owners also of the greater proportion of the said property, have represented that it will also be beneficial to all the persons interested in the said property, to widen the said street and place as proposed, and that they are willing and desirous that it should be effected; but by reason of some of the property being held by minors, the same cannot be accomplished without the authority of this legislature; Therefore, Preamble:

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Charles-street, or Washington Place, shall be opened to the width of one hundred and fifty feet, from a point ninety feet [from a point ninety feet] north from Centre-street, to a point sixty feet south from Madison-street. Streets may be opened
