CHAP. 169.

A Supplement to the act, entitled, An act for the dispatch of business in Frederick County Court, passed at December session eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, chapter one hundred and seven.

Passed Feb 22

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, it shall be the duty of the judges of Frederick county court, to adjourn the February and October terms of said court, both before and after the May and December terms of said court, in the same manner they have been in the habit of adjourning the February and October terms of said court, before the passage of the law to which this is a supplement. Adjournments of terms

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That upon a petition for a road being filed with the clerk of Frederick county court, any judge of said court may appoint commissioners, and the clerk of said court shall issue a commission as now prescribed by law in road cases, during the recess of the court. Petitions for roads

Sec. 3. And whereas, doubts are entertained by some as to the construction and operation of the act, to which this is a supplement, in relation to the extent of the liability of insolvent debtors, and their securities, upon bonds executed by such insolvent debtors, upon their application for the benefit of the insolvent laws. in cases of insolvency, which were pending before the Frederick county court at the time of the passage of the law to which this is a supplement, and which cases of insolvency have been transmitted to the May and December terms of said county court, there to be acted upon by said court, by virtue of said original act; therefore, Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That any creditor or creditors of any such insolvent debtor, shall be entitled to the same remedy upon any such insolvent debtor's bond, and to the same extent, in cases of default or neglect to appear in said county court to answer the allegations of his creditors, as they would or might have been entitled to before the passage of the act to which this is a supplement, and that no suit now pending, or hereafter to be instituted upon any such insolvent debtor's bond, in the Frederick county court, shall in any manner be defeated by reason of any defect, omission, or informality in the act to which this is a supplement. Creditors of insolvent debtors
