

or owners thereof, in writing, first had and obtained; Provided also, that the owner or owners of any mill, factory, or other possession, to which any lateral road shall be made in virtue of this act, shall be entitled, at any time, to a transfer of all the right of the said company in and to such lateral road, and to the tolls accruing thereon, by paying to the said company the actual costs of the construction thereof, including the purchase of any right of way, such cost to be ascertained by three persons not interested or related to any person interested in such road, mill, factory, or other possession, one to be appointed by the said company, one by the owner or owners of such mill or factory, and the third to be appointed by those two, the decision of any two of whom shall be final as to the amount; and on payment of such amount to the said company, or to their use, the rights to such lateral road, and to receive tolls thereon, shall be vested in the owner or owners of the mill, factory, or other possession, so paying the same, subject nevertheless to the condition of keeping such road in repair.

1830.
CHAP. 180.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That as soon as the said company shall have perfected any lateral road, as authorised by this act, and license shall have been granted to collect tolls for the use of the same, which the governor of this state is hereby authorised to grant after view and examination, in the manner authorised and directed by the thirteenth section of the act to which this is a supplement, it shall and may be lawful for the said company to charge and collect tolls for the use of any such lateral road, at the same rates, in proportion to the length or extent of such lateral road, or of the part of it used, as the said company are authorised to collect and charge for the use of the turnpike road to be constructed by them in virtue of the act to which this is a supplement.

May collect taxes.

CHAPTER 180.

An Act for the benefit of M. A. Ringgold, and Chil- Passed Feb 23:
dren.

WHEREAS a tract of land, laid out for five hundred acres Preamble.
more or less, part of Conococheague Manor, in Washington county, was by deed bearing date the thirtieth day of March, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty-four,