

1830.
CHAP. 181.

Proviso

Commissioners to give bond,
&c.

George Hay Ringgold by the orphans court of Washington county, to be paid over to such guardian for his benefit; one other fourth part of the said residue to be so invested for the benefit and advantage of Virginia Ringgold, herein before mentioned, her heirs, executors and administrators, and paid over to her when she attains the age of eighteen years, or in the event of a guardian being appointed to her by the orphans court aforesaid, to be paid over to such guardian for her benefit; one other fourth part of the said residue to be so invested for the benefit and advantage of Rebecca Broadnax Ringgold, her executors and administrators, and paid over to her when she attains to the age of eighteen years, or in the event of a guardian being appointed to her by the orphans court aforesaid, to be paid over to such guardian for her benefit; one other fourth part of the said residue to be so invested for the benefit and advantage of La Fayette Monroe Ringgold, his heirs, executors and administrators, and paid over to him when he attains the age of twenty-one years, or in the event of a guardian being appointed to him by the orphans court aforesaid, to be paid over to such guardian for his relief; Provided always, that the portions of the proceeds of such sale allotted to the several minors aforesaid, shall descend, in the event of the death of either of them, in the same manner as real estate would descend.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commissioners, before they proceed to sell under this law, to give bond to the state, in the penalty of thirty thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of their duty, with security to be approved by the judges of Washington county court, or some one of them, which bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of Washington county court, and a certified copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be competent evidence in any court of law or equity in this state.

CHAPTER 181.

Passed Feb 24. An Act for the payment of the Journal of Accounts.

Preamble WHEREAS it appears by the journal of accounts of this session, that there is due from this state thirty thousand and ninety-four dollars and ninety-nine cents: Therefore,
Payment dis- Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, counted. That the treasurer of the western shore be and he is here-