CHAPTER 182.

An Act for the benefit of the Heirs of Mary Bucknal. Passed Feb 2

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That whenever Micajah Merryman, junior, of Baltimore county, shall, for the benefit of the children of his sister Mary Bucknal, deceased, have delivered to the clerk of Baltimore county court, to be by him recorded, a good and sufficient release and discharge of a certain mortgage on the estate of the said Mary, that was heretofore by her created and given to a certain William C. Harris, who has assigned the same to the said Micajah Merryman, junior, the court of Baltimore county shall appoint three discreet, disinterested persons, to be commissioners, who shall divide the real estate of Mary Ensor, deceased, who intermarried with Micajah Merryman, senior, equitably into three parts or portions, and allot them justly between Eleanor Merryman, Micajah Merryman, junior, and the children of the aforesaid Mary Bucknal, to wit, Sarah M. Todd, Eleanor Todd, Joshua, George W. Todd, Merryman D. Todd, and Mary Ann Bucknal; and the said commissioners shall, in making the said division and allotment, respect a certain distribution of the aforesaid estate heretofore made, to wit, on or about the third day of November, in the year eighteen hundred and ten, by William C. Goldsmith, George Harryman, Peter Bond, and Jacob Miller, commissioners appointed for that purpose by Micajah Merryman, senior, with the approbation of his children, to wit, Moses Merryman, who afterwards died intestate, and without issue, Micajah Merryman, junior, Eleanor Merryman, and Mary Todd, who being a widow, subsequently intermarried with a certain Benjamin Bucknal, and who were then all of full age; which said distribution was satisfactory to and approved of by the said Moses,

On release of a mortgage real estate to be divided.
