

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That said court shall immediately after receiving such report, appoint some early day to hear appeals, and receive and make further changes of property if necessary, of which said meeting reasonable notice shall be given in the discretion of said court, who shall, as soon thereafter as may be, cause the annual levy to be made out, and in addition to the number of copies of said levy now required by law to be made, it shall be the duty of said clerk to make a list, alphabetically arranged, specifying the names of the taxable inhabitants of said county, the amount of property assessed to each, and the rate of levy upon said property, which list shall be delivered to the clerk of the county court on or before the first Monday in August in each and every year, whose duty it shall be to suspend or deposit the same in the clerk's office in some conspicuous place, accessible to, and subject to the examination and inspection of, any person interested therein, without fee or reward.

1830.
 CHAP. 25.
 To hear appeals, &c.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said clerk shall receive for his services such compensation as said levy court shall think reasonable and proper, and shall be removable at the pleasure of said court, provided that in no one year shall a greater sum than two hundred dollars be allowed.

Compensation to clerk

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That in all other respects not specifically designated as changed and altered by the provisions of this act, the laws relative to the powers, duties and conduct, of the levy court and commissioners of the tax, shall be construed to extend to the levy court alone, and the office of the commissioners of the tax for said county, and all laws repugnant to the provisions of this act, are abolished and repealed.

Powers vested in levy court alone.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the clerk of the commissioners of the tax for said county, or such person or persons having charge of the books and papers belonging to the commissioners of the tax, to deliver over to the clerk of the levy court for said county the books and papers belonging to said commissioners, under a penalty of five hundred dollars for refusal so to do, which penalty shall be recovered by indictment, for the use of the county.

Books to be delivered over