

	Page.	Chap.
INSOLVENT ACTS. the act relating to insolvent debtors in the city and county of Baltimore	64	65
INSOLVENT DEBTORS.
An additional supplement to the act relating to, in the city and county of Baltimore	64	65
Any insolvent debtor who may apply for a personal or final discharge under the laws of this state, shall be entitled to include in the schedule of his debts, all costs adjudged, or which shall accrue after judgment, in any penal action, and be released from the payment thereof, in the same manner and upon the same conditions that he may be discharged from debts by him contracted, provided the penalty shall have been first remitted by the governor and council	131	125
Not necessary to produce any evidence of his confinement in jail; the county court or any judge thereof, or judge of the orphans court, or commissioners of insolvent debtors, to whom application may hereafter be made by any person for the benefit of the insolvent laws of this state, such applicant having complied with the provisions of the insolvent laws in every particular except producing evidence of his confinement in jail, to grant a personal discharge from arrest, &c. Every sheriff, constable, or other officer, upon the arrest of any defendant, to produce the body of such defendant before the county court, or any judge thereof, &c. where the said defendant resides, and there tender him an opportunity to comply with the provisions of the insolvent laws, except producing evi-		