

Meadows, in said county, to John Malehorn, Mordecai G. Cockey, and Abraham Leister, as trustees, in trust for the purpose of erecting thereon a house for public worship, free for all christian denominations, and to be occupied also as a school-house, in the manner and subject to the provisions and regulations therein specified: And whereas the said trustees, and a number of other inhabitants of Baltimore county, in the neighbourhood of the said lot of land, have subscribed and paid divers sums of money with which a house has been erected on the said lot for the purposes aforesaid, and have petitioned this general assembly to incorporate them for the purpose of taking charge of, and preserving the said house and lot for the uses mentioned in the said deed.

1830.
CHAP. 32.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the said John Malehorn, Mordecai G. Cockey, Abraham Leister, and all other persons who have subscribed and paid, or shall subscribe and pay, any sum of money to aid in the preservation or repair of the house erected on the land conveyed in trust as above recited, shall be and they are hereby incorporated by the name and title of The Trustees of the Clover Hill School and Meeting-House in Baltimore county, and by that name shall have succession, and may have and use a common seal, and exercise all the powers of a corporate body necessary for the purposes contemplated by this act; and the affairs of the said corporation shall be conducted, and the powers thereof exercised, by three trustees to be chosen by and from among the subscribers aforesaid hereby incorporated, at a public meeting to be held at the said school and meeting-house annually, on the first Saturday of October, or within thirty days thereafter; and the said John Malehorn, Mordecai G. Cockey, and Abraham Leister, shall be and they are hereby appointed and declared the trustees of the said corporation until the election shall be made in October next as herein provided; and the trustees herein appointed, and who shall hereafter be elected, shall be entitled to hold their office until a new election shall be made, and they shall have power to fill all vacancies which shall occur in their own body by death, resignation, or removal out of the county, until the annual election, and to take and use all proper legal means for the improvement, preservation and repair, of the school and meeting-house aforesaid, and the lot of land conveyed in trust as aforesaid, and for the collection, safe keeping and application, of all money subscribed for that purpose; and it shall be the duty of the said trustees to keep, or cause to be kept, a book for the use and as the property of the said corpora-