CHAP. 2.

be extended to the said Adam Robb until the first day of January eighteen hundred and thirty-two, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

CHAPTER 2.

Passed Jan. 6. An Act to preserve the Side-Walks in the Village of Union-Town, in Frederick County.

Not lawful to ride, &c. any horse over side walks

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of May next, it shall not be lawful for any person or persons to ride, drive, lead, hitch, or stand any horse, or drive any team, carriage, or other vehicle, whatever, along and upon any of the side-walks in said village or its limits.

Penalty for so doing

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons after the said first day of May next, shall ride, drive, lead, hitch, or stand any horse, or drive any team, carriage or other vehicle whatever, upon any of the side-walks in said village, or its limits, such person or persons, so offending, shall forfeit and pay for each and every offence, the sum of one dollar, to be recovered, in the name of the State of Maryland, before any justice of the peace, as other small debts are recovered, one half of which to be paid by the justice of the peace, who is to collect the same, to the person who shall give information and sue therefor, and the other half to be paid to the supervisor, to be by him laid out and expended in the improvement and repairs of the side-walks in said village.

Allowance to justices

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That justices of the peace and constables enforcing this act, shall be entitled to the same fees in every respect as in cases of the recovery of small debts; Provided always, that upon judgment for said fine and costs there shall be no supersedeas.

Proviso

Not to extend to persons in certain cases

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed so as to extend to any person or persons, their servants or assistants, passing across said side-walks with their horses, teams, carriages, or other vehicles, at the proper and necessary places, in going and returning, in the pursuit of their necessary business.

Copy of act to be set up at public houses

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall not be in force until the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one, nor shall it then have effect unless a copy thereof shall have been stuck up at two public houses in
