CHAPTER 50.

An Act for the surrender of the Charter of Baltimore College. Passed Feb. F.

WHEREAS the trustees of Baltimore College, and the trustees of the University of Maryland, have by their joint memorial to this legislature, made it known that the organization of the faculty of arts and sciences in the University of Maryland, hath provided for the establishment of a collegiate department upon a plan that embraces all the objects contemplated by the act incorporating the said Baltimore College, and have suggested that this organization of the said faculty will be rendered more beneficial to the citizens of the state of Maryland if the charter of said Baltimore College should be surrendered up to the state, upon such terms as would transfer the property belonging to the said corporation to the trustees of the University, to be applied by them to the use and support of the said collegiate department: And whereas it appears just and expedient to this legislature that the objects set forth in the said memorial should be effectuated; Therefore,

Preamble

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the trustees of Baltimore College be and they are hereby authorised to execute a deed of transfer of all the property, estate and effects, of the said corporation, to the trustees of the University of Maryland, upon the Deed of transfer authorised on certain conditions.
