

1830. CHAP. 77. penses, which may be in any manner incurred under the authority of this act, in laying out and opening the said street, and building the aforesaid bridge.

Bridge may be removed.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted, That if in the future improvement of Antietam-street the aforesaid bridge should be found an obstruction to such improvement, it shall be the duty of the moderator and commissioners of Hagerstown, and they are hereby expressly authorised and required, to cause such bridge to be removed, or so constructed as to admit the free passage of wagons, carriages, or other vehicles, up and down said street.

CHAPTER 77.

Passed Feb. 9. An Act appointing Commissioners to mark and bound the Lot of Land on which the House for Public Worship of the Baptist Society of Harford County stands, and to vest the Title of said Land in the Trustees of said County.

Commissioners to ascertain location of land.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Henry G. Watters, Harry D Gough, and Mahlon H. West, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and they, or a majority of them, are hereby authorised to settle and ascertain, from the best evidence that can be procured, the proper location and boundaries of the lot of land which has been in possession of the regular Baptist Society of Harford county, upon which the house for public worship of said society stands, and the said commissioners are hereby vested with all and singular the powers given by the act of seventeen hundred and eighty-six, to commissioners for marking and bounding land, and the several supplements thereto, and that they shall proceed in the same manner as by said act directed, and make a correct return of their proceedings, with a plot of such land as by them so found, to the clerk of Harford county court, who shall record the same

Evidence of original location.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That in case no suit or action be brought within the time limited by the act aforesaid for marking land, to call in question the adjudication of the commissioners, the marking and bounding of said land as aforesaid, and the record thereof, shall be conclusive evidence of the original location thereof; or if the adjudication of the commissioners shall be confirmed by verdict of