

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That if any person or persons shall wilfully, or without the orders of the said president and directors, pull down, break or destroy, with intent to injure, any part or parts of the said bridge, or of any abutment, pier or piers, or of any of the toll-houses, gates, bars, or other property of the said corporation, appertenant to, or erected or made for, the use and convenience of the said bridge, or the persons employed in conducting the business thereof, or shall wilfully, without the orders and consent of the said corporation, or any person or persons authorised by them, obliterate, deface or destroy, the letters, figures, or other characters, in any written or printed list of the rates or tolls affixed, or to be affixed, in any place or places, for the information of passengers and others, or who shall wilfully and maliciously obstruct or impede the passage on or over the said bridge, or any part or parts thereof, he, she or they, so offending, shall, and each of them shall, forfeit and pay to the said president, directors and company, not exceeding the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace, in like manner, and subject to the same rules and regulations, as debts under fifty dollars may be recovered; and he, she or they, so offending, may and shall remain liable to actions, at the suit of the president and directors, for further damages for such offence, if the said sum or sums herein mentioned be not sufficient to repair and satisfy such damages.

1830.
CHAP. 88.
Penalty for injuring bridge, &c.

Sec. 15. And be it enacted, That the president or directors of the said bridge shall have authority, and they are hereby authorised, to prohibit by notice, affixed upon some conspicuous part of said bridge, all persons from discharging any guns, muskets, or fire-arms whatsoever, upon the said bridge, under a penalty of five dollars for every such offence, to be recovered before any justice of the peace in Cecil or Kent counties, to be applied to the use of said counties.

For firing guns thereon.

Sec. 16. And be it enacted, That the said president, directors and company, are hereby directed to cause to be kept six lamps lighted up at twilight of each and every day whilst said bridge is kept up for travelling upon, in the following manner, that is to say, two at each end of said bridge, and two at the draw thereof; which said lamps shall all be lighted and kept up all the night for the purpose of giving light to travellers when passing over said bridge, and to vessels passing through the draw thereof; and upon neglect of lighting up said lamps, a fine of one dollar is hereby imposed upon the said president, directors and company, for each and every hour that said lamps shall

Lamps for the lighting same.