

Baltimore city court, and Baltimore county court, to Anne Arundel county court, and tried, it may be lawful for Anne Arundel county court, to allow to the Attorney General, or his Deputy, in addition to the sum now allowed by law, such compensation as said court may deem just and proper, to be levied and collected as other fees.

CHAPTER 101.

An Act appointing Commissioners to build a bridge over the Little Falls of Gunpowder, in Harford and Baltimore counties.

Passed Feb. 24, 1823

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be lawful for the commissioners of Harford and Baltimore counties, and they are hereby authorised and required, to levy and cause to be collected, before the year eighteen hundred and thirty four, upon the assessable property of said counties, a sum of money not exceeding four hundred dollars on each county, for the purpose of erecting a bridge across the Little Gunpowder Falls, at the Rock Ford, and that Mahlon H. West and Benjamin S. Amos, of Harford county, and Samuel Watkins, of Baltimore county, are hereby appointed commissioners to fix upon a site, and superintend the erecting the same, at or near the aforesaid Rock Ford, and that they also contract with some person or persons for erecting of said bridge, who shall give bond and securities to the commissioners of said counties, for building the same in a good and substantial manner.

Levy directed.

Commissioners named.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the money hereby required to be levied, shall be made payable to the commissioners herein named, and shall be by them accounted for to the commissioners of their respective counties.

Money payable—accounts.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the commissioners hereby appointed shall be entitled to a reasonable compensation for their services and attending to the erecting said bridge, to be paid jointly by the respective counties therein mentioned, in equal proportions.

Compensation.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the assent of the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Harford turnpike company shall first be given in writing, to the commissioners herein named, which assent shall be in conformity to the terms hereafter provided for, and shall be by said commissioners filed in the commissioners office of their respective counties.

Assent of road company required.