

CHAP. 106.

Redress for damaging.

1.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That in case any person shall wilfully injure, impair or destroy any part of said road, or any of the works; building carriages, vehicles, engines or machines of said company, he, she or they for every offence shall forfeit and pay to said company or their authorized agent, or attorney, not less than fifty dollars, which may be recovered in the name of said company, by action of debt, in the county court of the county, wherein said offences shall be committed.

Limitation.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That if the said road shall not be commenced in three years from the passage of this act, and shall not be finished within this state in ten years, from the time of the commencement thereof, then this act shall be null and void.

CHAPTER 105.

Passed Feb. 13, 1832

An act to divorce John Barks and Mary his wife.

Divorce.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the marriage heretofore solemnized between John Barks, of Washington county, and Mary Ramsburgh, of Frederick county, be, and the same is hereby declared null and void, and that the said John and Mary, be and they are hereby divorced a vinculo matrimonii.

CHAPTER 106.

Passed Feb. 13, 1832

An act to Incorporate Mount Nebo Public School, in Frederick county.

Trustees incorporated.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That John Baker, Joseph Rantzong and George Shafer, be, and they are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, by the name, style and title of the Trustees of Mount Nebo Public School, and by the same name shall have perpetual succession, and when any vacancy or vacancies shall happen in said board of trustees, by death, resignation, removal, or any other disqualification of any of the trustees of said school, the surviving and remaining trustees of said school, or a majority of them, shall proceed to fill up said vacancy or vacancies, so as to perpetuate the number of three trustees to said school forever, and shall be able to sue and be sued, and shall have all and singular the power and authority which similar corporations possess, and are necessary to carry into effect the intention of this law, not being repugnant to the laws of this state.