CHAPTER 14.

Passed Jan. 6, 1882. An act for the benefit of Reuben Worthington, of Allegany county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty two, chapter one hundred and twenty eight, it was provided by the third section thereof, that all certificates of surveys of lands made in Allegany county, after the passage of said act, and returned to the land office of the western shore, should be compounded on within twelve months from the date of such certificate of survey, or become null and void, and the lands therein contained be liable to be again taken up as other vacant land in said county; And whereas, it is represented to this General Assembly, that Reuben Worthington, of Allegany county, has returned to the land office a certificate called 'Worthington's Coal Banks,' which should have been compounded on, on or before the twenty eighth day of December, eighteen hundred and thirty one, but the money sent on by him not having been received in time; and to have another survey made would be attended with considerable expense to the said Worthington; Therefore,

Time allowed to compound.

Proviso.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Reuben Worthington, of Allegany county, be, and he is hereby allowed further time to compound on his certificate of survey called 'Worthington's Coal Banks;' Provided, he shall compound on the same, on or before the first day of February, eighteen hundred and thirty two, any law to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided nevertheless, that rights acquired in the said land by other persons since the issuing of said warrant, shall not be affected by any thing in this act.
