

CHAP. 123. and cause the same to be placed therein for the use of said county, the same to be under the care of the present surveyor of said county and his successors, whose duty it shall be to give extracts of such papers and plats to any person or persons applying for the same, and the surveyor furnishing the same, shall be entitled to demand and receive from the person or persons so applying, the same compensation which is allowed to county clerks for like services.

Levy or expenses: Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the levy court of said county are hereby authorised and required to levy and assess on the assessable property of said county a sum sufficient to cover all expenses incurred under this act, to be collected and paid as other county charges are.

CHAPTER 123.

Passed Feb. 20, 1832 An act to lay out and open a New Road, in Frederick and Baltimore Counties.

Commissioners named. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Daniel Engle, John Duderan, and Peter Gosnel, be, and the same are hereby appointed commissioners, to survey, lay out, and open a road, not exceeding thirty feet in width, commencing at some point on the road from Uniontown, to Washington city, between Dr. Thomas B. Owing's Mill, and the village of Ridgeville, in Frederick county, on the best and most practicable route, to the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, at or near the foot of the first inclined plane, on the east side of Parr Ridge, in Baltimore county, and the said commissioners shall make out a plat of that part of the road through Frederick county, and return the same to the clerk of the county court, to be recorded among the records of said county; they shall likewise make out a plat of that part of the road through Baltimore county, to be recorded among the records of said county, and the said road when so opened, shall be thereafter deemed to be a public road forever, and shall be kept in repair in the same manner, as other public roads are directed to be kept up, in said counties.

Blats.

Expenses. Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the expenses of surveying and opening the said road, shall be paid by Baltimore and Frederick counties, in proportion to the distance it may pass through each county, and the levy court of Frederick county, and commissioners of Baltimore county, are hereby authorised and required, on receiving from the commis-