CHAPTER 128.

Passed Feb. 21, 1832 An act for the relief of Margaret Saylor, of Allegany County.

Preamble.

WHEREAS Margaret Saylor by her petition, sets forth that her late husband, Jacob Saylor, of Allegany county deceased, died intestate in April, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, seized and possessed of certain real estate in the aforesaid county, leaving three children, namely: Daniel, Mary Louisa, and Jacob F. Saylor, the eldest of which is only about nine or ten years of age, and for whom she has been appointed guardian, and as such, having the controul of the property, and the care and protection of the children, and from the strictest economy and proper attention has experienced that the delapidated state of the property, its unproductiveness, and the necessity of improvement of part of the said estate, with a view to the bettering of the condition of her children as to sustenance, education, and future benefit, respectfully sets forth that the interest of the minors would be greatly enhanced by the sale of a part of said real estate, the proceeds to be applied to the improvements of the residue; thereby making it more productive in rents and so forth, for the present and for the benefit of said children in future, she therefore, by her petition, prays a special law for that purpose—Therefore,
