

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That Margaret Saylor before she proceeds to sell the property aforesaid, must give bond with security to the state of Maryland, to be approved by the judges of the county court of the aforesaid county, for her fair disposition of said property, and a just application of the proceeds thereof to the purposes aforesaid, and shall every six months account with said court by report, and exhibits of an account upon oath to be settled in said court as a chancery proceeding, of the application of said proceeds, and further, that she be authorised to convey by deed or deeds to any and every purchaser or purchasers of the aforesaid property, as a part of said estate of which he, she, or they, may become the purchaser.

CHAP. 129.

Bond.

Account under oath.

Authority to convey.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the said minors before named; heirs at law and in equity of Jacob Saylor deceased, are hereby debarred from ever claiming any interest whatsoever, in and to such part of said estate as may be sold by their trustee as aforesaid in pursuance of this law.

Heirs debarred from claim.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That before said Margaret Saylor proceeds to sell the aforesaid property she must give thirty days notice in some news paper printed in the town of Cumberland.

Notice of sale.

CHAPTER 129.

An act authorising the Levy Court of Worcester county, to levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum of money for the purposes therein mentioned.

Passed Feb. 23, 1832

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the levy court of Worcester county, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, at the discretion of said court, to levy on the assessable property of said county, a sum or sums of money sufficient to defray the expenses for covering the roof of the court house of said county, or otherwise of guarding and protecting the said court house with slate, tin, copper, lead, or some other incombustible substance, so as effectually to protect the said court house, and the records of said county from all accidents by fire; Provided, That the said levy court shall not levy on the assessable property aforesaid, for the purposes aforesaid, more than five cents in the hundred dollars, for any one year.

Levy authorised.

Proviso.