

CHAP. 143.

said village, and then and there elect five commissioners for the said village, from and among the free white male citizens thereof, qualified to be commissioners according to the second section of the act hereby revived, and that on the first Monday of July, after the present year, the free white male citizens of said village of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, and who shall have resided therein during the six months next preceding each election, at which they shall claim to vote, may assemble at such house as the five commissioners of the village, or a majority of them, shall designate as the town hall, and then and there elect five commissioners for said village, qualified as aforesaid, to be so.

Annual election.

Judges of election.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That Eccleston Brown, Dr. Francis P. Phreps, and Charles Willis, or a majority of them, shall be judges of the election hereby authorised to be held on the first Monday in April next, and shall hold and conduct said election as prescribed by the third section of the act hereby revived; and make duplicate returns under their hands and seals, one thereof to the clerk of Dorchester county, and one to the clerk of Caroline county, of the persons elected, and that the said returns shall be safely kept by the clerks of said counties in their offices.

Returns.

CHAPTER 143.

Passed Feb. 29, 1832 A supplement to an act, entitled, An act appointing Commissioners for the town of Oxford, in Talbot county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by an act passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-five, chapter two hundred and eleven, Robert Banning, James L. Chamberlaine and John Willis, were appointed commissioners for the town of Oxford, in Talbot county, And whereas it is represented to this General Assembly, by petition in writing of sundry citizens of said town, that from the circumstance of two of the aforesaid commissioners being non-residents of said town, difficulties do exist which may be avoided by the appointment of two additional commissioners—Therefore,

Additional commissioners named.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That William Markland, and Ennalls Martin, junior, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners for said town, in addition to those already appointed, with authority to exercise all the powers, and perform all the duties that can be exercised or performed by the commissioners appointed by the act to which this is a supplement.