

CHAP. 28.

As to bonds.

That before the said commissioners shall be entitled to receive any money, by virtue of the provisions of this act, they shall enter into bonds to the state of Maryland in the penalty of double the amount of the whole sum hereby authorized to be levied, conditioned for the faithful discharge of their duties as commissioners as aforesaid; which said bonds shall be lodged with the clerk of the county courts of each of said counties, and may be sued as any public bonds now are, and a certified copy of said bonds under the seal of either of the county clerks as aforesaid, shall be evidence in any court of law or equity in this state.

Vacancies to be filled.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted; That in case of the death, resignation or refusal to act, of any of the commissioners herein named, the commissioners of Baltimore or Ann Arundel county as the case may be, shall appoint some suitable person resident of the county in which he was a commissioner to act in his place, and the person so appointed shall have the same powers and authorities as are vested in the said commissioners by this act, and be subject to the same penalties as the other commissioners herein named are.

Compensation.

Sec. 5. And be it enacted; That the said commissioners or a majority of them, shall render to the commissioners of said counties respectively at their meeting next after the completion of said bridge, or within six months thereafter, a true, full and fair account of all monies by them laid out and expended by virtue of this act, in building and completing said bridge, and the commissioners of the respective counties, shall make such compensation to said commissioners, as they in their judgments shall think proper.
