CHAPTER 196.

Passed Feb. 24, 1832 An act for the benefit of Margareta Waesche and others.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Margareta Waesche and her children, Elizabeth W. Emelia, Frederick R., and George F. R. Waesche, that Metta Repold, by her last will and testament devised to said Margareta for life, with remainder after her death to said children, certain real estate, situate in the city of Baltimore, which, by reason of the minority of said Elizabeth, Emelia, and Frederick, cannot be leased out on perpetual terms, which, it is alleged, is the best mode of making the said real estate productive and beneficial to said Margareta and her children; in consequence of which dif-
