CHAPTER 213.

A further additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the revaluation and reassessment of the real and personal estate in Caroline county, in this State, passed the present session.

Passed Mar. 6, 1832

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act entitled, A further additional supplement to an act, entitled, An act for the revaluation and reassessment of the real and personal property within this State, so far as the same relates to Caroline county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twelve, chapter one hundred and ninety-one, passed at the present session, shall be, and is hereby suspended in its operation until the first Monday in April, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, except as far as relates to the commissioners of the tax therein appointed, and the appointment of assessors by them therein authorised.

Operation of act of present session suspended.

Except.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the assessors to be appointed by the commissioners of the tax, under the act to which this is a supplement, shall make their return to the commissioners of the tax on the first Monday in April, eighteen hundred and thirty-three; and shall be by them then received and acted on, under the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement.

Commissioners re turns.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That when the commissioners of the tax, at their first meeting, under the act to which this is a supplement, shall have performed the duty of appointing assessors, as therein authorised and required, they shall then proceed in the ordinary duties of their offices, in the same manner, and under the same laws, as they would have done if the act to which this is a supplement had never passed, until the first Monday of April, eighteen hundred and thirty-three, at which time the act to which this is a supplement, shall be in full force for all future proceedings of the said commissioners.

Commissioners proceedings directed.
