

An act to provide for an alteration in the constitution, so as to enlarge the number of Election Districts, in Baltimore county, and fix the place of voting. Passed Mar. 7, 1891

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly by the petition of sundry citizens, residing in parts of the sixth and ninth election districts in Baltimore county, that they labour under great inconvenience in consequence of being so distant from the respective polls as the districts are now located, many of them being respectable mechanics and manufacturers—Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That so much of the constitution of the state, as relates to the division of Baltimore county into election districts, be, and the same is hereby altered and amended, so far as to authorise the erection of an additional district in said county, to be composed of parts of the sixth and ninth election districts.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed by the General Assembly of Maryland, after the next election of delegates to the General Assembly, at the first session after such new election, as the constitution and form of government of this state directs, in such case this act and the alterations of the constitution therein contained, shall constitute and be valid as a part of said constitution and form of government to all intents and purposes, any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That if this act shall be confirmed according to the provisions of the constitution and form of government in such case made and provided; William Dorsey, John Muray, junior, of (Coxe's Town) and Thomas Lane, of Baltimore county, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, and authorised forthwith after the said confirmation, to review the sixth and ninth election districts of said county, and to lay off, locate, and establish an additional election district in said county as aforesaid; and said commissioners shall make a return of all their proceedings to Baltimore county court, to be there recorded at the expense of the county, and paid as county charges are levied and paid; and the governor and council are hereby authorised and directed to appoint commissioner, or commissioners in place of any of the commissioners herein named who may die, resign, or refuse, or fail to act in said commission.

Sec. 4. And be it enacted, That the commissioners herein authorised to be appointed, shall be entitled to receive such
