

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That said court may, in their discretion, allow such additional compensation to the clerk, for the last year, as they may deem just and proper, over and above the sum allowed by the act to which this is a supplement.

CHAP. 240.

For past year.

Sect. 3. And be it enacted, That the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, in relation to the compensation and salary of the clerks, so far as the same may be inconsistent with this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed:

Repealing clause.

---

CHAPTER 239.

An act to regulate the weight of Quercitron, and all other Ground Bark, Sumach, and all other articles sold by weight in this state.

Passed Mar. 7, 1832

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, that all Quercitron and all other Ground Bark, Sumach, and all other articles, sold by weight in this state, that one hundred pounds shall be taken and considered as one hundred weight, and that twenty hundred, be considered and taken for one ton, and so in proportion for any greater or smaller quantity, any law to the contrary notwithstanding.

Regulation hereafter.

---

CHAPTER 240.

An act to close up the Old Road therein mentioned.

Passed Mar. 9, 1832.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That all that part of the public road in Anne Arundel county, known as Hood's Old Mill Road, leading from the new Westminster road, through the estate of John Barne's heirs to the public road from near the White House, on the Frederick road, to Sykes' Mill, be, and the same is hereby declared to be closed and shut up.

Road closed.