

government of the said school or schools agreeably to the fourth section of this act, and the said trustees may proceed to build a house or houses for the purposes aforesaid, and when built and prepared for the reception of a school or schools, they shall certify the same to the judges of the orphans' court aforesaid, who shall and may pay over to the said trustees or their order, their distributive portion of the fund appropriated to the said district in which said house or houses shall be built, agreeably to the number of schools which shall have been returned as established by the said commissioners, which said trustees may apply the first years apportionment to assist in the building said school house or houses, as the case may be.

Sec. 6. And be it enacted, That when the said schools shall have been organized as aforesaid, and having procured a teacher or teachers approved of by the trustees thereof, and have made up the number of at least fifteen regularly subscribed scholars for the year, residents of said county, and continued therein for the term of one year, the same having been certified to the said orphans' court, by the respective trustees in the several schools in the several districts, shall be entitled to draw from the said orphans' court, their distributive portion of the donation to the said district respectively, for the payment of their teacher or teachers, which they may have had employed for and during the term aforesaid, which payment shall be made by the said court in the month of December annually.

Requisite to entitle to donation.

Sec. 7. And be it enacted, That if any of the commissioners appointed for the different districts of said county, by virtue of this act, should refuse or neglect, or in any wise become incapable to act, that the other commissioners are hereby authorised to fill such vacancy or vacancies, as the case may be, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of this act.

Vacancies.

Sec. 8. And whereas, it appears that there is an ambiguity in the law, making a distribution of the donation to the Hillsborough school and Denton academy, which passed the legislature of Maryland, at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter one hundred and seventy; in consequence of which the orphans' court have declined to draw the sum of five hundred dollars, which is due the said county; Therefore be it enacted, That the said orphans' court shall postpone the drawing of the said fund, until the first Monday of October next, and then they shall proceed to draw from the treasurer of the western shore, the said sum of five hundred dollars, and when so drawn, shall, and may proceed to distribute the same, to the said schools
