Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the several assessors so appointed by virtue of this act, shall qualify according to the provisions of the above act and on viewing the said real and personal property, shall proceed to value and assess it, according to the directions of the commissioners, and make their return at a time specified by said commissioners, and when so done, the levy court of said county shall proceed to levy and allow each and every assessor, a sum which they shall think, in their judgment, shall be a reasonable compensation: Provided, it shall not, in any case, exceed one hundred and fifty dollars.

CHAPTER 37.

Passed Jan. 25, 1832

An additional supplement to the act, entitled, An act authorizing Gates to be kept on the public roads in Queen Anne's county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-three, chapter one hundred and seven.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, that part of the original law to which this is a supplement, which relates to the recovery of the tax on gates, in case of neglect, by bill of indictment, of the grand jury, is not only oppressive on the persons indicted, but is a considerable tax on the county;—Therefore,

Repeal.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the fourth and fifth sections in the original law, to which this is a supplement, be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Supervisors to return lists of gates, and to whom they belong.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted That it shall be the duty of the supervisors of the public roads, at the time they render their accounts for settlement to the Levy Court, to accompany the same, with a list, under oath, of the number of gates which are on the road, of which he is supervisor, and designate to whom they belong. And when a list of gates has been so rendered by the supervisor, the person or persons to whom they belong, shall stand charged, annually, on the books of the collector, therewith, until the said owner or owners, of such gate or gates, shall satisfy the levy court of their abatement and removal; and the supervisor having once returned a list of gates, under the provisions of this act, shall thereafter be required, to return annually, only such gate or gates as may be put up on the road, subsequently to his preceding return.

Persons to stand charged therewith till removal:

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That the levy court of said county, shall, when making out the list of taxes, enter to
