

1831.

LAWS OF MARYLAND.

CHAP. 257.

Penalty.

Annual levy authorised.

work house, contrary to the provisions of this act, such person, upon conviction thereof in the county court of said county, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence the sum of twenty dollars, current money, to be applied towards the support and maintenance of the poor of Dorchester county, under the direction of said trustees.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the justices of the levy court of the county aforesaid, at some one of their sessions, after the first Monday of April next, and yearly and every year thereafter, shall and they are hereby empowered and directed to assess and levy on the assessable property of said county, at the time of making their county levy, such sum of money as the said trustees, or a majority of them, shall or may deem absolutely necessary and requisite to carry into effect the intentions and provisions of this act; to be collected and paid as other county levies are, which said money, when collected, shall be paid by the collector to the trustees of the poor, or to the order of them, or a majority of them, under their common seal, who are hereby authorised and required to receive and apply the same to and for the use, benefit and charge of maintaining the poor, in purchasing provisions and other necessaries for their use and labor, for providing men and women servants, to be under the direction of the overseer, for purchasing materials for the use and employment of all the poor who shall be able to work, and to carry into effect the other provisions of this act.

Repealing clause.

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That all laws contrary to the provisions of this act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 257.

Passed Mar. 10, 1832. An act to provide for the opening and extending Fayette street, in the City of Baltimore.

Commissioners named and authorised.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James W. McCulloh, William H. Freeman, Asahel Hussey, William J. Ward, and James Kelley, be, and they are hereby appointed commissioners, with power to them, or a majority of them, to open and extend Fayette street, in the city of Baltimore, from Cove street westwardly to Gilmor street; as laid down upon the plat heretofore made under the direction of the commissioners appointed by an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act relating to the City of Baltimore, passed at December