

CHAPTER 260.

CHAP. 261.

An act to divorce Joseph Harvey, of the city of Baltimore, from his wife Rebecca C. Harvey. Passed Mar. 10, 1830

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Joseph Harvey, of the city of Baltimore, be henceforth divorced from his wife Rebecca C. Harvey; and the marriage heretofore had and solemnized between them, is declared to be henceforth and forever null and void; and they are hereby declared to be mutually released from all and every duty and obligation, and benefit and advantage growing out and in consequence of the said marriage, and the said Joseph Harvey is hereby declared to be divorced a vinculo matrimonii. Divorce granted.

An act, further supplemental to the act of December Session, eighteen hundred and twenty seven, chapter one hundred and eleven, entitled An act to regulate sales by public auction. Passed Mar. 10, 1832

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That to the oath or affirmation prescribed by the eighth section of the said original act, the auctioneer shall hereafter add, that his account contains a just and true account of all lands and tenements, vessels or other chattels whatsoever, and that he has conformed in all things to the true intent and meaning of the several supplements thereto, as well as to the said original act. Addition to oath.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That a license to act as auctioneer within the city of Baltimore, may on the request, or with the consent of the party, be issued by the treasurer, nunc pro tunc, so as to avail him for a year, from the day on which his license expired, or in such manner as to avail him for any part of the interval, the applicant may desire any thing in the seventh section of the said original act, or in the sixth section of its supplement, per act of December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-eight, chapter one hundred and forty-eight, to the contrary notwithstanding; Provided always, That no license issued as herein authorized, shall acquit the party obtaining it of any penalty of the said original act, or its supplements aforesaid, if prosecution for such penalty shall have commenced before such license was obtained. License nunc. pro tunc. Proviso.
