

CHAP. 310. signs, the conveyance of the fee simple and reversionary interest of said heirs, in said demised ground, on paying or tendering in payment such sum of money, and after, or before such period as between said lessee or lessees, and said Boyle shall be agreed and fixed; and may also contain such other conditions and provisions in behalf, or on part of said heirs, and their estate, and interest, in the demised premises, as to said Boyle, shall appear most beneficial for said heirs.

CHAPTER 309.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832 An act respecting the Equity Jurisdiction of the County Courts, in the first Judicial District of Maryland.

Removal of suits
to the High Court of Chancery.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any equity suit now depending, or hereafter to be commenced or instituted in either of the county courts of the first judicial district of this state, the judges or any one judge thereof, upon suggestion in writing, by either or any of the parties thereto, supported by affidavit or other proper evidence, that the said suggestion is not intended to produce delay, shall, and may order and direct the bill, exhibits, answers, and all other proceedings in such suit, to be transmitted to the High Court of Chancery of this State, and the High Court of Chancery shall proceed in, hear and determine the same in like manner, as if such suit had been originally instituted therein.

CHAPTER 310.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832 An act relative to Liberty Street, in the City of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, the commissioners appointed in the twelfth section of an act, entitled An act relative to the city of Baltimore, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, chapter one hundred and forty eight, to cause to be surveyed and laid off, all such streets, lanes and alleys, within the limits of the city of Baltimore, as they should deem proper and convenient, have laid off a continuation of Liberty street, in the said city, from Saratoga street to Mulberry street, which it is probable will never be opened on account of the expense which will attend the opening of the same and for other reasons, while the ground over which it is laid off, is by the provisions of the sixteenth