

CHAP. 313. or application in such way and for such periods as may be judged proper; Provided, That no infant or infants shall be deemed a defendant or defendants, within the meaning of this section, in whose behalf an application shall be made or proceeding instituted under, and by virtue of the acts respectively in the last foregoing section mentioned.

Suit not to abate
in case of marriage

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That no suit in equity shall abate by the marriage of any of the parties, but on application of any of the parties, the court may on such terms and notice as to it shall seem proper, allow and order any amendment of the pleadings, and the making of any new and additional parties, that such marriage may render proper.

Amended.

CHAPTER 312.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832 An act to repeal an act, entitled An act to provide for the more complete administration of Justice, in equity cases in Allegany County.

Repeal.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled An act to provide for the more complete administration of justice in equity cases in Allegany county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty, chapter thirty, shall be and is hereby repealed.

CHAPTER 313.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832 A supplement to the act passed at November Session, of the year eighteen hundred and four, chapter fifty-five, entitled An act to provide for the trial of facts in the several Counties of this State, and to alter, change and abolish, all such parts of the Constitution and form of Government, as relate to the General Court and Court of Appeals.

In case of new trial.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That in any suit or action, in any county court of this state now pending, or which may hereafter arise where a new trial has been or may be ordered, it shall and may be lawful for either party to make suggestion, as required by the second section of the act to which this is a supplement, and it shall thereupon be the duty of the county court, in which such
