the court: Provided also, That such negro or mulatto so obtaining a license as above, shall enter into recognizance with such sureties and in such condition and penalty as the said courts or either of them shall approve.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That if any free negro or mulatto shall be convicted of any crime committed after the passage of this act, which may not, under the laws of this state, be punished by hanging by the neck, such free negro or mulatto may, in the discretion of the court, be sentenced to the penalties and punishments now provided by law, or be banished from this state by transportation into some foreign country.

CHAPTER 224.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832

A supplement to an act to make public an old road leading from Coalsville, in Montgomery county, to intersect the public road from Vansville, in Prince George's county, at or near the Paint Chapel in said county, passed at December session, eighteen hundred und twenty-three, chapter one hundred and eighty-four.

Preamble,

WHEREAS, in consequence of the death, removal from the county, and refusal to act, of several of the commissioners named in the act, to which this is a supplement, the road mentioned in said act cannot be improved as is required by the said act—Therefore,

Commissioners named.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Washington Duvall, Francis Valdenar and Edward Dawes, be and they are hereby appointed commissioners, who, together with such of the commissioners, named in the act, to which this is a supplement, as are willing to act, are hereby authorised and required to carry into effect and operation the provisions of the original law, to which this is a supplement.
