CHAPTER 327.

Passed Mar. 14, 1832 An act to condemn and make Public a certain piece or lot of ground therein mentioned.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it is represented to this General Assembly by a number of the citizens of Baltimore, that great inconvenience is suffered by them in common with many others, in consequence of their remoteness from any of the markets in said city; And whereas, a lot of ground was laid off by the commissioners, acting under authority of an act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, entitled An act relating to the city of Baltimore, for a market house, at the intersection of Howard, Richmond, Garden and Biddle streets, which said lot of ground has never been condemned for the said purpose, and the citizens of Baltimore having applied to have the same condemned and made public—Therefore,

Commissioners appointed to open &c.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That James W. Collins, James Dougherty, Thomas Hazard, Frederick Seyler and James M. Henry, or a majority of them, be, and they are hereby appointed a board of commissioners to condemn and make public, a lot or lots of ground, or so much thereof as may be deemed necessary at the intersection of Howard, Richmond, Garden and Biddle streets, in the city of Baltimore, as laid down in a plat returned by the commissioners, under an act of Assembly, passed December session, eighteen hundred and seventeen, entitled An act relating to the city of Baltimore, and which plat is now in possession of the mayor and city council of Baltimore, and deposited in the office of the city commissioners, in said city, and whenever a vacancy in said board may occur, by the refusal to act, the resignation, death, or other inability of any of the said commissioners,
