

RESOLUTIONS.

1831.

No. 125.

Resolution authorising the clerk of the senate, to record the proceedings of the several Electoral Colleges, from the year 1781, to the year 1825, inclusive. Passed Jan. 28, 1832

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the clerk of the senate be directed to record in the record book heretofore provided by order of the late electoral college; the proceedings of the electors of the senate of Maryland, so far as they have been preserved from the year seven-teen hundred and eighty-one, to the year eighteen hundred and twenty-five inclusive.

No. 126.

Resolution appointing a select committee of five, relative to the Southern and Western limits of this State. Passed Jan. 7, 1832

Resolved, That a committee consisting of five be appointed to enquire and report to the senate, what were the true southern and western limits of the province of Maryland, according to the original charter from the King of Great Britain to Lord Baltimore.

Resolved, That said committee be instructed to enquire, and report to the senate, whether the southern and western limits of the country as defined in the original charter from the King of Great Britain to Lord Baltimore, ought now to be taken, and acknowledged as the southern and western limits of this State, and, if not, to ascertain and report to the senate, what are the true southern and western limits of this State.

Resolved, That said committee be instructed to enquire and report to the senate, what is "The first fountain of the Potomac," as mentioned and intended by the original charter from the King of Great Britain to Lord Baltimore, as far as said committee may be able to ascertain; and the point at which the meridian for the western boundary of this State ought to start.

Resolved, That said committee be instructed to enquire and report to the senate, whether our sister state of Virginia, has, at any time, by her constitution, or laws, made any recognition of the right of Maryland, to all the territory contained within the original charter from the King of Great Britain to Lord Baltimore.
