

be necessary to be employed by the said Warden, of whom he shall have the appointment and removal, subject to the approval of the board.

Sec. 8. And be it enacted; That before the said warden shall enter upon the duties of his said office, he shall give bond to the state in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, with at least two securities to be approved by the visitors, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as warden, and for the safe keeping of all such persons as shall be committed, by legal authority, to the jail of Baltimore county, which bond shall be filed and recorded in Baltimore city court, and an office copy under the seal of said court, shall be as good and lawful evidence in the several courts of the state, as the original bond would be if produced and proved; and the said warden shall also take and subscribe an oath, or affirmation, that he will duly and faithfully execute the duties and trusts, and exercise the powers committed to and vested in him as warden of the jail of Baltimore city and county.

Wardens bond & oath.

Sec. 9. And be it enacted, That all commitments of prisoners to the jail of Baltimore county, whether on civil or criminal process, shall be directed to the warden of said jail, whose duty it shall be to receive the prisoners from the officers having them in charge.

Receiving prisoners.

Sec. 10. And be it enacted, That the said warden be obliged to conduct all prisoners in his custody, to and from the courts, when the said courts shall direct him so to do.

Conduct prisoners

Sec. 11. And be it enacted, That the said warden shall account with the visitors for all sums of money which he may collect as jail fees for prisoners confined in the jail, or from any other source connected with the institution.

Warden to account.

Sec. 12. And be it enacted, That the said visitors may at their will and pleasure remove said warden from office, and appoint another in his stead, and that they shall allow such compensation to said warden and his assistants, as they may think reasonable and proper.

Removal of warden.

Compensation.

Sec. 13. And be it enacted, That the said visitors shall keep regular books of accounts, in which the whole expenses of the jail, whether for supplies, salaries of officers, repairs, or incidentals, shall be distinctly stated, as also all the receipts and expenditures upon the different dockets, in such a manner, as that these accounts may shew what is chargeable to Baltimore county, and what chargeable to Baltimore city.

Visitors books &c.

Sec. 14. And be it enacted, That all expenses attending the repairs, alterations and improvements of the jail, and of the property appertaining thereto, shall be paid for in equal

Assessment of repairs &c.