

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap. Sec.

ATTORNEY GENERAL,

Powers, duties and compensation given by the act of 1829, chap. 90 to deputy attorney generals extended to the Anne Arundel county court may allow additional fees to, or his deputies for criminal cases removed from Baltimore city or county courts

68 1
100

AUCTION;

Further supplement to the act of 1827 chapter 111, to regulate sales at, Addition to the oath required of the auctioneer

261
" 1
" 2

License nunc pro tunc may be issued So much of the 10th section of the original act, and of 3d section of the supplement, as exempts certain articles from duty on sales at, repealed

" 3

Price of auctioneers licence for selling furniture, lands, lots, slaves, &c. $450

" 4

Case of death of licensed auctioneer, his license to extend to copartner or representative

" 5

Selling at, without license, deemed a misdemeanor, &c.

" 6

Constables required to report any violation of the, laws

" 7

B

BAIL;

To regulate, in certain cases Constables authorised to take bond from persons arrested by them for debt, &c.

274
" 1
" "

May imprison the debtor in case of refusal to give Plaintiffs may sue upon such bond, without assignment

" 2

Constable to return such bond to the magistrate

" 3

BALIFFS;

Respecting levy for compensating the, of Harford county

22

BALTIMORE CITY;

An act for shutting up a part of Forrest street, in the 25