

INDEX TO THE LAWS.

Chap. Sec.

D

DAVIS, DENNIS.	William Houch, authorised to com- pleat the collection of	84
DEBTS.	Further additional supplement to the act for the recovery of small	271
	Justices of the peace authorised to is- sue fi. fa. &c. upon a short copy of judg- ment rendered by any other justice of any county in this State, provided it be duly certified, &c.	" 1
	For recovery of small—see Chapter	274
	Constables authorised to take bond of arrested debtor, and to imprison in case of refusal to give	274 1
	Plaintiff may sue on such bond, with constables assignment	" 2
	Such bond to be returned by consta- ble to the magistrate, &c.	" 3
	Additional supplement to the act for recovery of small, out of court, and to repeal the acts of assembly therein men- tioned	290
	Legal notice of constable's sales pre- scribed	" 1
	Right and title to either real or per- sonal estate, may be sold by either con- stable or sheriff, to satisfy judgments	" 2
	Return and record of, of such sale, required.	" "
	Such sale to be of no avail until rati- fied by court.	" 3
	Provisions of the act of 1805, ch. 108, extended to such sales.	" 5
	Appeals from magistrate's judgments on, to be entered and prosecuted at the county court held next after rendition, or within 60 days of such rendition.	290 7
	Such appeal not to operate as a super- sedeas unless upon bond and security	" "
	Relating to the recovery of small	306
	Regulations respecting appeals from magistrate's judgments for	" 1
	The above regulations made applica- ble only to Baltimore county court.	" 6
	Plaintiff may attach debts due upon judgment or decrees, &c.—see chapter	321 1