

CHAP. 62.

fy to the treasurer of Baltimore county and to the Mayor and Register of the city of Baltimore the number of days which each of said judges shall have attended said court during said quarter; and that so soon as the said Orphans court shall have ascertained the proportions thereof chargeable properly to said county and city respectively, and shall certify said ascertainment as required by the fifth section of the act of assembly of December session of the year eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, chapter one hundred and sixty-seven, it shall be the duty of the treasurer of said county, and of the mayor and register of said city respectively, to pay each judge the amount due to him for attendance as aforesaid, for the said quarter from the city and from the county respectively.

CHAPTER 62.

Passed Feb. 17, 1832 An act to open and extend Pleasant Street, in the city of Baltimore.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, Sheppard C. Leakin, and others, by their petition in writing, have set forth to this General Assembly, that the public convenience and improvements of the city of Baltimore, would be greatly promoted by opening and extending Pleasant street, so as to intersect Hillen street:— Therefore,

Commissioners to open—vacancies.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Mayor of the city of Baltimore, shall appoint five disinterested persons of experience, which said five persons shall be, and they are hereby appointed, a board of commissioners, to open and extend Pleasant street, from Holiday street to Jone's Falls, carrying its present width, and giving it such a direction as to meet Hillen street, in the manner best calculated to form a communication therewith, without regard to the direction of Pleasant street, as laid down on a plat returned by the commissioners for laying down streets, lanes and alleys in the city of Baltimore, and whenever a vacancy in said board of commissioners may occur, by resignation, death, refusal to act, or otherwise, the said Mayor shall supply such vacancy by a new appointment, and a majority of the said commissioners shall be competent to perform all the duties of said board.

Assess damages and contributions—returns thereof.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the aforesaid commissioners, or a majority of them, after giving at least ten days notice, in two of the newspapers of the city of Baltimore,
